this poignant personal story traces the story of the 3rd battalion 25th marines the hardest hit unit of the iraq war every other four is a firsthand account into the life of cpl wojtecki a marine infantryman in weapons company 3 25 based out of akron oh the day by day journal of the marine describes what it felt like to be in some of the most hostile areas in the al an bar province and gives you the real story of what went on during those 10 months of training and combat the 23 year old college student describes life in a war zone constantly keeping watch on the roadways as a member of a mobile assault platoon cpl wojtecki s platoon fought an ongoing battle against insurgents such as zarkowi and the mouja haadine terrorist group that planted IEDs and mines on roadways making it a difficult fight by blending into the local population and then fleeing to lawless river towns this journal is dedicated to the 48 marines and sailors that died serving our country from 3/25 hopefully he says the words in this journal will live forever and carry on their legacy

Leon Uris said of Moskin's history of the corps it's a hell of a piece of work loaded with facts it is also a book that a marine can read with pride this third revised edition includes a newly written chapter on the Gulf War word bird experiences hot soup cold snow and wet clothes on a snowy winter day from the war of independence through the dark days of the cold war the marines have fought in all the nation's wars their readiness and prompt action at Harper's Ferry stopped John Brown's insurrection in its tracks in 1917 as the first to fight slogan demonstrated its electric effect the 5th marines sailed for France and joined up with the first convoy at sea anxious to get on with the war with courage discipline and typical small unit initiative the marines triumphed at Belleau Wood a victory that was to advantageously affect the quality and thinking of the marine corps ever after yet it is no accident that so much of the marine corps fighting and expeditionary service has taken place between the major wars marines could be found detaining Abraham Lincoln's suspected assassins aboard the Montauk conducting minor landings in Nicaragua or Korea in the late nineteenth century or battling rebels in Haiti or Cuba in the twentieth century their flexibility and adaptability has earned them a solid reputation as a preeminent fighting force their contributions to America's military force have been many development of amphibious warfare during World War II was undoubtedly one of the most important tactical innovations in our history as larger military services are reduced between wars the corps' traditional role as a force in readiness becomes more essential for peacetime strength and when the marines are called to action their preparedness and effectiveness as a maritime fighting team is unequalled includes a supplemental roster of state officers boards and commissions including federal boards and agencies operating in Ohio for 1934 this newly revised edition contains complete information on military bases in the U.S. and around the world it features in depth profiles of over 1,000 bases and installations including the number of active duty and civilian personnel payroll and contract expenditures units housing services and history of the installation new to this edition are e-mail addresses and sites for military bases worldwide information is also provided about bases that have closed or that are scheduled to be closed
